INTERNAL SERVICES DEPARTMENT (ISD)

William Kiriya, ISD, reported that Brian Lear and a liaison from the Probation Department (PD) conducted a walkthrough of the Inglewood Juvenile Courthouse to follow up on the inspection findings reported by Commissioner Burton at the July 17, 2013 meeting. He stated that the walkthrough resulted in determining that the lighting, ceiling tiles and walls were fine. However, he further stated that the courthouse exterior needs painting and landscaping and the State of California is responsible for those repairs and upkeep.

MENTAL HEALTH DEPARTMENT (MHD)

Mr. Stephen Shea, M.D., Director of Twin Towers Jail Mental Health Services MHD, reported that Los Angeles County has one of the largest jail systems in the United States (US) with approximately 19,000 inmates and every one of them are screened for mental illness. Dr. Shea stated that as the Director and Chief Psychiatrist of 300 employees representing all disciplines, his unit, located in the Sheriff's Department (SD), is responsible for approximately 3,000 clients that are housed in various mental health and special population units within the local jails.

In response to Commissioner Grills' question, Dr. Shea reported that MHD services that are provided to its clients may be the best in the Country and the US Department of Justice (DOJ), who has been MHD mentors for the past 15 years, concurs. Also, with the support of the Board of Supervisors (BOS) and the SD, Vanir Construction Management, Inc. (consultant) was hired to explore options to contract services which will include the jail's mental health population. He further stated that the DOJ have opened a new investigation on the use of force and they will examine suicide prevention protocols in the near future.

Commissioner Grills suggested, inviting Dr. Shea and an organization like the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) to a future meeting to address her observations. During a recent jail inspection, she witnessed a mentally ill female inmate that had been constrained for a prolonged period of time and left to lay on her waste for over two days and was eventually transported to receive medical attention.

SHERIFF DEPARTMENT

Commander Samuel Dacus, Sheriff Department, introduced himself to the Commission as the SBC representative.

Commander Ralph Ornelas, Sheriff Department, presented a follow up report on Commissioner Burton's inspection findings during her visit to the Century Regional Detention Facility (CRDF) on July 18, 2013:
